In the Gospels, we often read about people who were healed in some way by Jesus, and yet we do not know their names. The Gospel continues to be written in the down town east side of Vancouver in many wonderful ways.

- There are those who tend to the flowers outside our buildings as well as inside.
- They take care of the lawns and the hedges.
- Others wash and iron the altar linens.
- Some faithfully and lovingly clean our churches and meeting rooms.
- They take care of the collections and the accounting.
- They take care of the graffiti and fix whatever needs fixin'.
- They provide free estimates for what needs to be repaired.
- They make generous donations to those in need.
- They hold people up in prayer.
- They prepare and serve meals to the hungry.
- They offer clothing to those in need.
- Agape and The Good Shepherd Ministry continue to reach out to the most vulnerable.

What a great place to see the Beatitudes in action!

What a great place to be church!
